MEETING GOING SMOOTHLY

DEVELOPMENTS OF PAST WEEK DISPEL FEAR OF INTERFERENCE AT CHARLESTON.

Keen Local Interest Manifested in Sport at Palmetto Park-Consistent Caugh Hill Wins the Robert E. Lee Handicap.

Charleston, S. C., February 1.—The first week's racing here has developed the positive conviction that the Paimetto Park meeting would go on for the full announced period without interference on the part of the authorities. The management have all along felt sanguine of their ground and repeatedly contended that they were secure from interference. This belief was gained by assurances from the majority of the townsfolk that they favored the sport and were anxious for the turfmen to spend the winter here. The only regret voiced now is that the sporting fraternity throughout the country did not have more faith in the management's early amouncement and that a greater number of racing men were not here for the opening to give it the sort of a sendoff it deserved. Now that there is confidence that the meeting will go on uninterruptedly, new arrivals are coming with every train.

So far there has been nothing in connection of the racing that could be described as out of the ordinary. Ring operations have been light, but satisfactory in the main, as the earstern system is still in the experimental stage locally.

The sturdy and consistent Caugh Hill accounted for the Robert E. Lee Handieap, six furlongs, which featured today's card at Palmetto Park. The Zimmer racer carried 127 pounds and was conceding lumps of weight to all the others in the race. His winning chances appeared poor soon after the start, when he was caught in a jam, but he overcame the interference in game fashion and, under a well-sustained isst quarter drive, got up in the last ride

The two-year-old Elect, by Electioneer—Elegance, which J. G. Wagnon purchased from William Lakeland, reached Palmetto Park today. He was shipped south via the Clyde line.

G. W. J. Bissell sold two of his horses today. W. V. Casey secured Monitor, while J. Forrester purchased the filly Pretty Molly. The latter raced in Forrester's colors in the first race.

Jockey Peak was in receipt of a telegram from R. F. Carman offering him the same terms as he made with that rider last season. Peak objects to leaving for Juarez, as the meeting at that point is more than half over. If he can arrange with Mr. Carman to take up his duties with that stable be ginning with the Kentucky meetings he may accept the offer.

AN OFFICIAL WHOSE RULINGS HAVE EARNED FOR HIM THE RESPECT AND ESTEEM OF THE RACING PUBLIC

MANY able men have been associated with racing in the course of the last twenty-five years in the onerous positions of judge or steward and, as such, have frequently displayed mental equipment sufficient to have won distinction in courts of law. Grave questions involving property rights of no mean order now and then come up for adjudication by these men and it must be said that as a rule their decisions, based on rules of racing, have been on the lines of common sease and equity. If an owner is ruled off it means the practical destruction of the value of his horses and no judge or steward is disposed to view the necessity for such severe action unregretfully. Yet such high-class officials as M. Lewis Clark, R. W. Simmons, Clarence McDovell, Joseph A. Murphy, Capt, James H. Rees, J. J. Burke, E. C., Hopper and Charles F. Price have been at times called upon to solve perplexing questions in which the enforcement of racing law was imperatively demanded at the cost of banishing well-known men from the turf and were found equal to meeting the requirements of cach case with vigor, firmness and quick solution.

Of the men long and honorably connected with the judicial side of racing none has won

CHARLES f. PRICE.

CHARLES f. Price is mild mannered, afiable and courteous. He is not one to act over lastily and his natural kindness is always a guarantee that due weight will be given all that can be urged in behalf of offenders against turf law. However, the mental traits that lead him to weigh all points in evidence with equal and unprejudied attention do not in the least operate to deter him from inflicting due punishment when he was on terms of real friendship. Of course a man in his position has other functions that constitute his daily grind of labor, the matters required in standard, when a junger in placing the horses as they finish in races, frequently a delicate each of his activation has other interests in view.

AMERICAN HORSES WINNING IN AUSTRALIA

glad now that I have not sold her, for she ought to bring a good price in March. Strawberry Lenf is by May Duke, son of Muneaster. She won six races herself and is also the dam of Gold Sand, a good and frequent winner in England. Australian furfimeh are leaning more than ever to imported blood. It is needed. Yesterday I was visiting with a popular trainer here and he agreed with me that just at the present there was not a really good horse racing in Australia. Plastre won the Cup, of course, but I cannot make him out a good one. Fitz Herbert would trim him sure. Trafalgar has broken down and gone to the stud and the two-year-olds, bar Beragoon, look so far like a poor bunch to me. I think Australian trainers work their horses slowly. They must, on account of the method of starting, have them sober minded, and in doing this the borses lose their dash, High Brow is in training, but has not been asked to show anything as yet. I was disappointed in the horses that I brought over last year. They have not grown as they should, but now that the hot weather has come they will doubtless begin to do much better. This acclimatization process is a queer thing. It is here all right and all imported horses have to go through with it. This process does not seem to effect them for the first three or four months, but afterward they get drowsy and lose their speed.

"I would really like to have a good American sprinter here. No half-way horse, if you please, one which could really turn on like Roseben, for instance. The trainers in these parts know nothing at all about 'prepping' a sprinter and if Juck Keene would make up his mind to come down here I am sure we could ride in the tonneau of the best motor made in Belgium.

"I see that there is a chance of a revival of racing in the east. I should say it was about time the people of the United States came to their senses again. They have been out long enough and from what I can see, no good has come of it."

Lexington, Ky., February I.—Dr. Maurice M. Lezh, the eminent veterinary surgeon of this city, who since the antunu of 1911 has been engaged in exporting thoroughbred horses from the United States and England to Australia, writes entertainingly from Melbourne, Australia, under date of December 25, to his friend, Frank Rogers, of this city. Dr. Leach's letter, which was received this week, is in part as follows:

AFTER MORE ADDED MONEY

BLUE GRASS BREEDERS WOULD HAVE RACING CLUBS INCREASE STAKES AND PURSES.

Chairman Milton Young Calls Kentucky State Racing Commission Meeting for Next Thursday to Consider Petition on Subject.

Lexington, Ky., February 1.—Fred A. Forsythe, owner of the Fountainblue Stud of thoroughbred horses, came to Lexington from his farm near Harrodsburg this week for the purpose of discussing with Chairman Milton Young of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, a plan that he has formed to the end that horsemen may get more money from the Heensed racing associations in the form of added money to stakes and purses, but Colonel Young, who has been Ill for several days, was not able to receive him. Mr. Forsythe thinks that the horsemen are not getting a just proportion of the money the public pays for the sport of racing, and says that he has made up his mind to do all in his power to more nearly equalize the distribution, even if he has to make a race for the Legislature as representative from Mercer County in order to accomplish his purpose. He advances the idea that the racing associations should be allowed to take a net profit of only ten per cent, after allowing a reasonable amount for salaries and the up-keep of the plant and that the balance should go to the horsemen in the form of added money.

"I am going to ask the Kentucky State Racing Commission to have the associations make to that body a statement of their earnings—to show their books—with the idea that the commission will pass a rule limiting the 'take' and exercising its right to demand a larger proportion for stakes and purses," he said. "If the commission will pass a rule limiting the 'take' and exercising its right to demand a larger proportion for stakes and purses," he said. "If the commission will not undertake to do this, then I am going to ask the General Assembly of the state to pass an amendment to the act by which the commission was created that will compel them to see that the tracks get no more than ten per cent, profit."

Chairman Milton' Young this afternoon instructed Secretary Pelham Johnston to call a meeting of the Kentucky State Racing Commission to be held here at noon February 6, on Thursday next, and at the same time he gave the at noon February 6, on Thursday next, and at the same time he gave the following statement to the press:

"A great number of breeders, owners and trainers have requested me to call a meeting of the Kentucky State Racing Commission at an early date to consider a petition which they desire to make to the commission, to require the various racing associations to add more money to their stakes and purses, this in view of the successful meetings held by them last year and of the fact that it is now apparent that there will be no racing in New York this year and the meetings here will be equally as successful as those of last year. The rules also provide for a meeting of the commission as soon as possible after the first day of February of each year to pass on the applications of the associations for racing licenses for that year."

Chairman Young did not say so, but it is presumed that the spring dates will be allotted at the same meeting. Some of the horsemen in this part of the state are disposed to criticise the conditions for the New Louisville Jockey Club's spring stakes, as announced recently. The Kentucky Oaks, for instance, was until this year a guaranteed event worth $2,000 to the winner. Its value is now announced as $1,000 added.

Little Bit Scores in Two-Year-Old Race at Juarez with 100 to 1 Quoted Against Her.

El Paso, Tex., February 1.—Little Bit, appropriately named, won today's maiden race for two-year-olds at odds of 100 to 1. This filly is not much larger than a Shetland pony, being a late June foal. She broke behind her opposition, found an opening on the bend and was bumped about there when she tried to get through, but gamely weathered the interference and outgamed Paw in a hard drive. The race was not a true run one, as most of the contestants ran to the extreme outside on the bend in entering the stretch. Owner W. H. Fizer allowed the little filly to run unbacked, and it is claimed, that a small wager on the chances of the favorite, La Estrella.

Selling race activities broke out afresh today. When Palatable won the third race, R. F. Carman bid bim up from $400 to $600, at which price he was bought in by Heath & Ambrose, W. S. Heath then took a hand and ran up Royal Meteor, the winner of the sixth race, from $600 to $800. He was protected by owner Phil Hyams.

A number of Texas breeders of the thoroughbred, including J. W. Fuller. Wade McLemore, J. F. Newman, H. T. Batcheler and I. E. Clark, will shortly have a racing bill prepared for presentation to the Legislature in this state. It will provide for a racing commission on lines similar to that in Kentucky, with meetings of not over ten days in any one county with pari-mutuel system of this week and proposed the drafting of the bill mill they can secure information concerning the Kentucky State Racing Commission from Secretary Pelham Joinston, at Lexington. If they can secure the passage of such a law, short meetings will be held at San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and other cities in Fexas each fall, winding up at Tambasgiving, which always brings the opening of the Juarez meeting. The Texas breeders and patrons of racing are hopeful that such a racing law can be passed through the Legislature this year, as they claim they have the backing of every agricultural Association and society in the state, and representatives of these organizations will go will to be presented to the lawmakers there.

A. G. Dundap expects his mare Mauretania to drop her first foal during the coming March. After last winter's meeting at Juarez he shipped the daughter of Cumard to George M.
